COLUMBIA TO HOST AMBASSADOR OF INDIA FEB. 29

COLUMBIA, S.C. – The Columbia World Affairs Council and the Midlands International Trade Association are pleased to announce that Her Excellency Nirupama Rao, Ambassador of India, will speak to the organizations on February 29 in Columbia, from Noon-2 p.m. at the Columbia Marriott. The ambassador will address increasing business between South Carolina and India as well as opportunities for tourism and cultural relationships. The luncheon is $25 per person and sponsored by BlueCross BlueShield of South Carolina.

“There is growing interest in India both from a business and cultural standpoint. We look forward to providing a forum where people can learn more about both,” said Fred Monk, chairman emeritus and managing director of the Columbia World Affairs Council.
